ARCOTEL Castellani Salzburg

The ARCOTEL Castellani offers a perfect combination of pleasure, enjoyment, creativity and relaxation. The 4-star Parkhotel boasts five seminar rooms, two restaurants, its own garden, fitness and relaxation area as well as the baroque St. Josephskapelle for weddings and christenings. The ARCOTEL Castellani is the home base par excellence for enjoying both the abundance of culture and the wide range of sporting activities Salzburg has to offer such as rafting, mountain biking, hiking and skiing.

The main building of the ARCOTEL Castellani dates back to 1642 and the historic chapel and the Old Priory exude historic flair and a historic romantic atmosphere in combination with all the modern comforts of a 4-star hotel. The St. Joseph's chapel for weddings and christenings was built in 1677 by Abraham Zillner in honour of St. Joseph and gave its name to the neighbourhood „Josefiau“.

The annex built in 2002 with 91 rooms adds a contemporary flair.

Rooms & Suites

The ARCOTEL Castellani has 137 Comfort & Superior rooms, 15 suites and one barrier-free room. The use of high-quality cherry, apple and nut woods creates a warm and welcoming atmosphere in the rooms. Suites are located in the main building, the Parkhotel and the Alte Pfarrei, and in addition to their exclusive design, a number of the suites also have a balcony, terrace and even an open fireplace for a touch of romance. (Photo: Countryhouse Suite)

And when you want to relax, the ARCOTEL Castellani Salzburg offers a chill-out area, fitness area, steam bath and a rain shower.

Special Highlights

Old Priory

The Alte Pfarrei, or the old presbytery, is suitable for creative meetings in an intimate setting. The view into the gardens provides an exclusive and relaxing atmosphere in which to work.

St. Joseph's chapel

St. Joseph's chapel dating back to 1677 is a popular venue for romantic weddings, christenings and concerts for up to 40 people.

Salieri – Das Restaurant & Event Restaurant Eschenbach

Our à-la-carte restaurant Salieri - the restaurant Austrian and Mediterranean contrasts meet at an elevated level. The legendary relationship between Antonio Salieri and Wolfgang Amadeus Mozart inspires the culinary concept of the restaurant. Enjoy Austrian cuisine with Italian influences – created in a modern and casual way by chef Martin Möglinger. Together with his team, he focuses on seasonal, regional dishes. The excellent wine selection is dominated by the two countries Austria and Italy.

The special atmosphere of the historic building, the restaurant is an ideal meeting place for food lovers. A brick floor from the 17th century and a historic tiled stove together with a noble walnut paneling and an indirect light concept create a relaxed feel-good atmosphere. In the summer, the terrace in the quiet hotel garden invites you to enjoy the outdoors - a treasure in the city. In addition the Salieri restaurant is the ideal place for special dinner events.

The three elegantly furnished salons of the Restaurant Eschenbach all boast natural light and can seat up to 150 people. No matter what the occasion, your celebration will become a truly unforgettable event at the Event-Restaurant Eschenbach.

Salieri – Die Bar

Our modern hotel bar “Salieri – Die Bar” is a popular meeting place for informal business talks or private meetings. In the summer, our quiet terrace is perfect for an outdoor drink in the garden. The drinks menu has everything from fine teas to colourful cocktail creations and exclusive wines, and a range of snack foods is also available.

The ARCOTEL Group, one of the largest privately-owned Austrian companies in the tourism industry, is clearly positioned in the business and city hotel sector. The ARCOTEL Group combines the personal and individual ambience of a family-run company with international standards, top quality and a solid financial basis. Founded in 1989, the Group currently comprises ten 4-star and 4-star-superior category hotels in Austria and Germany. ARCOTEL Hotels currently employ more than 650 people.
